How does becoming a Corporate Member benefit your company?

The Corporate Member Program is an opportunity for regional businesses who share to receive substantial marketing opportunities and employee benefits through financial gifts to the Museum of Contemporary Native Arts. Marketing exposure can include corporate recognition and free admission to some of the best-attended cultural events in the Santa Fe area. You will have the opportunity to entertain clients in an elegant setting, making a valuable, lasting impression. Your support helps the museum to provide fresh and interesting entertainment and cultural programming, one of the goals of which is to lure young professional talent to Santa Fe and keep it here. Finally, your business will be affiliated with an organization widely acknowledged as the contemporary Native cultural center of the world, with a strong record of success and a visible plan for the future.

How will it benefit the Museum of Contemporary Native Arts?

The participation of the business community is critical to ensuring the Museum of Contemporary Native Arts' ongoing accomplishment. Corporate Members are community leaders and important ambassadors for the museum. Funding achieved through the Corporate Member program helps us to present a popular and stimulating exhibition schedule and fun and lively programs for learners of all ages. Your support helps us to offer high-quality, highly memorable arts experiences to residents of the Santa Fe area and beyond.

Corporate Membership offers a wealth of benefits.
