5. AIHEC Legislative Summit (Washington D.C.)

The Tribal College and University (TCU) delegations will travel to Washington, DC, on February 3-7, 2020, for the American Indian Higher Education Consortium's (AIHEC's) annual legislative summit. In FY 2020, IAIA will receive $10,458,000, representing a $498,000 funding increase over the $9,960,000 received in FY 19. IAIA is requesting $10,710,000 in funding for FY 21.

During the AIHEC meeting, the TCUs will honor Carrie Billie and Patrese Atine for their contributions in advocating for passage of the FUTURE Act; in making Part F of Title III Mandatory Funding permanent for TCUs.

6. AIHEC Student Conference Update

The 2020 AIHEC Student Conference will take place on March 21-24, 2020, at the Albuquerque Convention Center. The Sponsorship Committee has completed the packets and is actively seeking sponsors.

The Program Committee has submitted the estimate to print the programs. They are working with the Tribal College Journal on a proposal for a 50/50 split for the advertisers. The advertisement form is complete and will go out to the TCUs. Eric Davis is soliciting advertisements from the conference hotels.
