IAIA[®]

INSTITUTE OF
AMERICAN INDIAN ARTS

Congratulations on your acceptance to the Institute of American Indian Arts (IAIA), an academic community that empowers creativity and leadership in Native arts and culture.

IAIA is the only fine arts institution in the nation devoted to contemporary Native American and Alaskan Native arts. We dedicate ourselves, our curriculum, our facilities, and our energies in preparing our students for success and leadership which reflects Native cultures and values. We are honored you have selected IAIA as your pathway to success, and we warmly welcome you to the IAIA family.

Let this brochure guide you on your next steps to prepare for your first semester at IAIA.

You can also visit www.iaia.edu/admitted for more information.

IAIA ON-CAMPUS HOUSING

CLE Residence Center

The CLE Residence Center is a two-story, traditional-style dormitory. Each of the 77 rooms accommodates two students and has a private bath. Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, for both Fall 2021 and Spring 2022 each room will accommodate 1 single undergraduate student. Each floor of the Residence Center has a laundry room, kitchen, and large common area for watching television, playing games, relaxing, and holding meetings or study groups.

CLE Residency Center Application Requirements:

- Housing Application
- Physical Examination Form
- IAIA Background Check Form
- Immunization Form
- $120 Non-Refundable Deposit

On-campus housing is on a first-come basis—only complete applications with all submitted documents and deposits paid will be considered. Freshman students are required to live on campus the first year.

Complete your online application for on-campus housing at www.iaia.edu/housing.

www.iaia.edu/housing
housing@iaia.edu

Family Housing

Available for students with children under the age of 18. Students with a spouse and/or domestic partner, without children, may be considered based on availability.

There are 24 casitas, each with two bedrooms, a living area with a kitchenette, and a bathroom. Casitas may be rented furnished or unfurnished. In the complex you will find a half-court basketball area, volleyball court, a playground for children, a laundry facility, student mailboxes, and community.

Family Housing Application Requirements:

- Housing Application
- $250 Non-Refundable Administration Fee
- Documents for each child under the age of 18 (see application for details)

VISIT IAIA

The beautiful IAIA campus spreads across 140 acres in the south part of Santa Fe, New Mexico. The atmosphere is electric, a product of the creative energy that occurs when talented students interact with and are inspired by talented faculty. The IAIA campus and community is very welcoming and inspiring.

We highly encourage you to watch our virtual campus tour at www.iaia.edu/visit. Our virtual tour provides in-depth information about our campus, community, technology, and more. You can get a sense of the residential rooms, library, equipment, and academic space before stepping foot onto campus.

DISABILITY SUPPORT SERVICES

IAIA welcomes students with disabilities and is committed to providing qualified students with disabilities access to academic courses, programs, and college activities.

Disabilities come in many forms, and if you believe you have a barrier to learning or living on campus caused by a documented disability, the Disability Support Services program can help set up accommodations to remove those barriers. Some accommodations may take a longer period of time to set up, so please contact our office soon.
