IAIA Making History Sponsorship Opportunities

2022 Scholarship Event and Anniversary Celebrations

IAIA MAKING HISTORY CELEBRATION
2022 SCHOLARSHIP EVENT

Scholarships Change Lives, Shape Futures

This year, the Institute of American Indian Arts (IAIA) is celebrating its 60th anniversary and IAIA Museum of Contemporary Native Arts (MoCNA) marks its 50th year. We've planned a spectacular range of anniversary events from special exhibition openings at MoCNA and our annual Open House on campus to a symposium about IAIA Making History.

A not-to-miss highlight of the year will be our IAIA Making History 2022 Scholarship Event on Wednesday, August 17, at La Fonda on the Plaza in downtown Santa Fe, NM. We'll come together to raise critical scholarship funds and make higher education a reality for our Indigenous students.

Generous sponsorship support from individuals and organizations helps IAIA students reach their potential, complete their education, and develop the confidence and leadership skills to fulfill their dreams. We invite you to join the festivities, support our talented students and become part of a unique Santa Fe institution, the only college in the world dedicated to the study of contemporary Indigenous arts and leadership.

Enrich the Lives of Talented Students in 2022 and Beyond

Higher levels of sponsorship support include recognition, and an opportunity to attend a variety of exciting events.

On Wednesday, August 17, 6:00–9:00 pm, we will gather in the ballroom at La Fonda on the Plaza to celebrate six decades of IAIA Making History. This celebration will include:

- Native American hoop dancing and drum song;
- A special reading by Joy Harjo (Mvskoke Nation) '68, 23rd Poet Laureate of the United States; and
- A Live Auction featuring one-of-a-kind collaborative sculptures, jewelry, paintings, and more, created exclusively for this event by some of IAIA's most celebrated alumni artists. The works of art will respond to IAIA's six decades of achievement. Lead artists for these extraordinary collaborative pieces include Doug Hyde (Nez Perce), Tony Abeyta (Navajo), Wendy Ponca (Osage), Steve LaRance (Hopi/Assiniboine), and Rose Simpson (Santa Clara Pueblo).

At higher sponsorship levels, you'll also receive invitations to the glamorous opening of The Art of Indigenous Fashion exhibition at the IAIA Museum of Contemporary Native Arts on August 19, membership in IAIA's President's Circle, private curator-led museum tours, and more.

IAIA Making History 2022 Sponsorship Benefits

During this landmark year, individual donors, businesses, and organizations have an opportunity to impact the lives of IAIA's talented students through sponsorship support. The majority of IAIA's students depend on scholarships to attend and complete college. Scholarships for our students from almost 100 Indigenous communities are essential now more than ever.

Please consider sponsoring the IAIA Making History celebration at one of the generous levels below. To ensure recognition, or learn more about opportunities and deadlines, please contact Tamara Bates, Associate Director of Advancement, at (505) 424-5712 or tamara.bates@iaia.edu.
