

Institute of American Indian Arts Student Outcome Data Report November 1, 2017

Undergraduate Graduation Rates

Notes on undergraduate graduation rates:

1. Four year graduation rates are rising.
2. Six year graduation rates are dropping, but will have a rising trend once 12FA and 13FA data are included.
3. 07FA = Entering class in fall semester 2007. 08FA = Entering class in fall semester 2008, etc.
4. Full-time students take 12 or more credits in college-credit-bearing courses.
5. Degrees earned include IAIA degrees and those from other institutions as reported to the National Student Clearinghouse.

Graduate Student Graduation Data

	Fall 2013	Spring 2014	Fall 2014	Spring 2015	Fall 2015	Totals
Total Students	30	2	30	4	24	90
Graduated	22	2	24	2	16	66
In Progress	1	0	1	0	7	9
Withdrew	7	0	5	2	1	15

Undergraduate Student Retention Rates after One Year

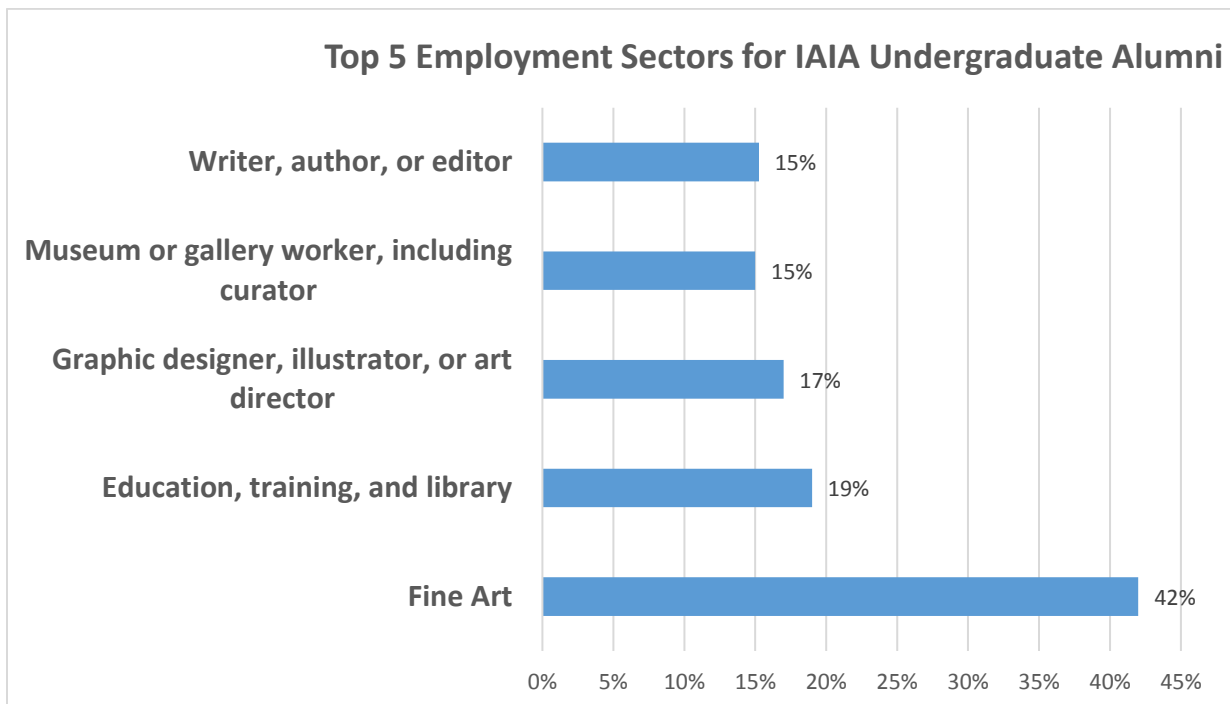

Notes on undergraduate retention rates:

1. Full-time students take 12 or more credits in college-credit-bearing courses.
2. Students seeking a certificate (a one-year program) are not included in the retention cohorts.
3. 14FA = Entering class in fall semester 2014. 15FA = fall semester 2015, etc.

Data about Undergraduates after Graduation

Data source: 2017 Strategic National Arts Alumni Project Survey (SNAAP) of IAIA graduates. 20% response rate.

Note: Respondents could choose more than 1 sector

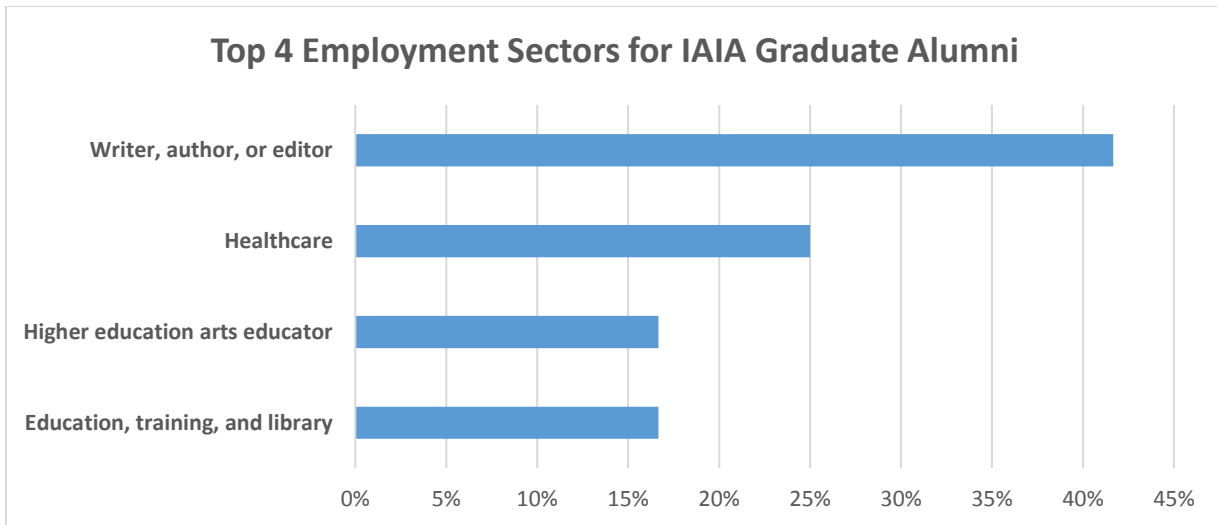

Note: Respondents could choose more than 1 degree

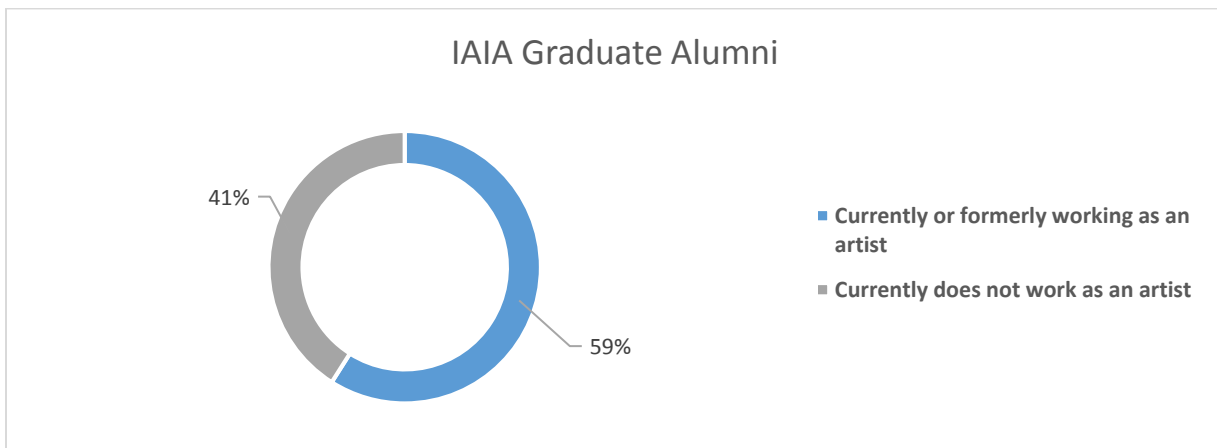

Data about Graduate Students after Graduation

Data source: 2017 Strategic National Arts Alumni Project Survey (SNAAP) of IAIA graduates. 20% response rate.

Note: Respondents could choose more than 1 sector.

Occupations of selected recent MFA graduates

- Runs a production company: Reel Indian Pictures.
- Teaches in the Low Residency MFA program at Goddard College
- Department Chair of Cinematic Arts & Technology at IAIA.
- Writer, film director, and video artist.
- Copy editor for Bloomberg Intelligence.
- Music educator, performer, and author of books on music.
- Works as an Information Specialist at the University of New Mexico's Fine Arts and Design Library.
- Teaches at Sinte Gleska University.
- Alumni & Constituent Relations Manager at IAIA.
- Chair of the Creative Writing Department at Austin Community College.
- Assistant Professor in Film and Digital Media Arts at Northern New Mexico College.
- Tecumseh Postdoctoral Fellow at Purdue University and teaches in the IAIA MFA program.
- Founder and Director of TERRAMAR Consulting Group.
- Resource Development Manager at Austin Community College.
- Associate Professor of English at Navajo Technical College.
- Vice President of Academic Affairs at Nueta Hidatsa Sahnish College.
- Development Educational Coordinator and Director of the Summer Bridge Program at IAIA.

For more information or questions about this report, please contact:

Dr. William O. Sayre
 Director, Institutional Research
 Institute of American Indian Arts
 505-424-2364
bsayre@iaia.edu